Disclosure of Monetary and Non-Monetary Benefits

HSBC Bank (Singapore) Limited (the “Bank” or “we”) may receive and retain monetary and non-monetary benefits from other members of the HSBC Group or third parties (such as counterparties, brokers, or agents) in connection with the origination, distribution, and/or sale of investment products or the referral of services to you. These products or services may be those issued or provided by the Bank, another member of the HSBC Group, or by third parties. Such benefits may be received over and above the standard fees and charges levied by us as specified in this disclosure.

Monetary Benefits (Please refer to Table A)

Monetary benefits include trading profits made by the Bank and rebates receivable from product issuers of distribution fees, initial charges, redemption fees, maintenance fees, servicing fees, contingent deferred sales charges, management fees, trailer fees etc. The types of investment product(s) or services and typical benefit(s) received and retained by the Bank for each type of investment product or service are set out in Table A below. Other members of the HSBC Group may make trading profits and receive benefits from the origination, issuance, distribution and/or sale of these investment products which the Bank may not be aware of – such trading profits and benefits are not specifically described in Table A.

The benefits listed in Table A are not exhaustive. In exceptional cases, the benefits receivable by the bank in respect of certain transactions may exceed the percentage/amount specified in this Tariff. If so, we will notify you and pass the excess benefit to you accordingly.

Non-Monetary benefits

We may also receive and retain from counterparties, brokers, agents, or other members of the HSBC Group non-cash benefits such as research and advisory services, economic, political and/or market analysis or data and quotation services.

We may enter into commission sharing arrangements with such parties in respect of (a) any trades or transactions services provided for you (b) any hedges effected by us in connection with such trades or transactions or (c) services provided for you in our capacity as principal (for over-the-counter transactions), agent (for exchange traded products or funds), as custodian, or as nominee.
